Ambassador John N. Palmer

Ambassador Palmer is an entrepreneur, telecommunications pioneer, and a community leader. He began his career in telecommunications with the purchase of a local radio common carrier in 1965. By 1973, he had developed more than nine regional paging companies throughout the South. That year, he formed Mobile Communications Corporation of America (MCCA). During his 16-year tenure as chairman and president, MCCA grew to become a significant force in the cellular telephone business. In 1989, Palmer sold MCCA to Bellsouth, but retained certain businesses that became SkyTel Communications, which became a leader in advanced wireless messaging and deployed the first nationwide two-way wireless messaging network. Palmer served as chairman of SkyTel until its sale to MCI WorldCom in 1999. Palmer was appointed U.S. Ambassador to Portugal by President George W. Bush and held the post from 2001-2005. Prior to his appointment as Ambassador, Palmer was chairman of GulfSouth Capital, Inc. He was also appointed by President Bush to sit on the President's Export Council as a Private Sector Trade Advisor to the Office of the U.S. Trade Representative. A native of Mississippi, Ambassador Palmer received a bachelor's and master's degree from the University of Mississippi. He and his wife Clementine have four grown children. Ambassador Palmer has recently been appointed by Governor Haley Barbour to the Southern Technology Council of the Southern Growth of Policies Board, a non-partisan public policy think tank created to develop and advance economic development policies in the Southern region of the United States. The 2006 Hawk Staff would like to thank Ambassador Palmer for his generous donation following Hurricane Katrina. The funds donated by Ambassador Palmer were used to replace lost photography equipment and were also used to benefit the drama department and girls' soccer team. In recognition of his generosity and service to our state and nation, the 2006 Hawk is dedicated to Ambassador John N. Palmer.

Tom Stockman, Cody Jarrell, Branissa Baum, Whitley Loyd, and Erin Dugat

Cody is active in many school and community activities. He has appeared in The Christmans Schooner and Beauty and the Beast with the Slidell Little Theater and in Forever Plaid and Footloose with Picayune on Stage. He is a member of Future Business Leaders of America, of which he is the Treasurer. He is also a member of the forensic team, Drama Club, Thespians, Beta Club, Leo Club, National Honor Society and the National Vocational-Technical Honor Society. Cody has been a member of the band since 9th grade and has served as Captain and section leader and received the Director's Award. In 11th grade, Cody was chosen to represent Hancock at Boy's State. Cody has received awards for public speaking at both the district and state FBLA conferences. This year Cody received an All Star Cast medal at the regional Dramafest and was chosen as Best Supporting Actor. He was awarded an All Star Cast medal at the state Dramafest. After high school, Cody plans to attend Pearl River Community College and then the University of Southern Mississippi to major in theater.

Cody Jarrell

Tom Stockman

Tom has held several offices at Hancock including president of Mu Alpha Theta, vice-president of Leo Club, and historian of the National Honor Society. Tom placed in the top 15% in mathematics at the Mississippi Math and Science competition this year. Tom is a certified scuba diver and has competed at the state level in tennis. Tom has won 1st place intermediate at the state Shotokan competition and 2nd in regionals. Tom plans to attend Mississippi State and major in engineering. His favorite high school memory is the Morning Show.

Whitley has been on the Superintendent's Honor Roll for 7 semesters. She has participated in many clubs and activities including band, color guard, indoor guard, drama club, History and Government Club, SADD, National Honor Society, and National French Honor Society. In her sophomore year, the indoor guard team won a championship. She is as yet undecided on a college, but plans on residing in Florida after graduation. Her favorite memory has been the state theater competition. She is looking forward to meeting new people and the changes to come next year.

Whitley Loyd

Branissa Baum

Branissa has been selected for the National Honor Roll and Who's Who Among High School Students. She has been a member of JROTC, Homecoming Committee, FBLA, SADD, Frontline, FCA, and Beta Club. She has participated in volleyball, dance team, and color guard. Her favorite memories of high school involve homecoming week and home football games. Next year Branissa plans to attend either PRCC or Southern Miss. And become a surgical technician. The biggest lesson she learned in high school: "Study!!! And listen to the principals — they know best."

Erin attended Girl's state and received the Citizenship Award. She has been on the Principal and Superintendent's Honor Roll and has had perfect attendance. She is a member of National Honor Society, National Art Honor Society, National French Honor Society, Beta Club, History and Government Club, SADD/Frontline, and Student Council. Erin has been class treasurer and a member of the dance and tennis teams. Erin plans on majoring in psychology and specializing in criminal psychology. When asked about being selected for Hall of Fame Erin responded " ... I was so surprised that I almost fell out of my seat in class."

"Time flies when you're having fun." The past twelve years of school have not been just something else to do- they have been our lives each and every day. It seems like just yesterday that we came to high school, walking down the halls for the first time as timid freshmen. Now, reflecting on our past, moments of achievement, happiness, hard work, and even confusion and anger, we can proudly say we have made it to the top and will soon say our final goodbyes. I believe I speak for everyone when I say our senior year is indeed one we will cherish and hold onto forever. Walk with pride across that field and never look back. Congratulations Class of 2006!

Star Student

Mr. Keene Golding & Cody Arceneaux

It is truly an honor to be selected as Star Teacher, but to me the honor is greater when I think of who is doing the selecting. To know that I have had some influence on a person like Cody makes me appreciate my position as a teacher. Cody is among the best and brightest students that I have had the pleasure of teaching. He is constantly seeking answers to his questions and is always up for an intellectual challenge. No assignment ever seems to be too much for Cody. In fact, he thrives when the topics get complex. Cody is one of those students who is not in it for the grade, but is in it to quench his thirst for knowledge that he continues to build upon, both in the school setting and on his own. This approach to knowledge acquisition is truly a rare trait among today's student body. It has been my privilege to call myself Cody's teacher. When he moves on he will certainly be missed.

K. Golding

It was difficult for me to pick a Star Teacher from all of the teachers I have had through high school. After much thought, I picked Mr. Golding. In class, he tries to make the subject as understandable as possible through demonstrating it. Because he often asks students questions instead of just lecturing, he is able to impart understanding of physical principles rather than giving students formulas to solve problems. This allows the students in his class to learn to think rather than learn to mechanically plug numbers into a formula. Also, Mr. Golding's classroom rule to "Do the right thing" is more effective than the usual tactic of creating a rule for everything that a student could possibly do wrong. In addition, it shows Mr. Golding views students as people there to learn instead of children that need babysitting. Mr. Golding has been one of the most skilled teachers I have been taught by.

Bubba (Kevin)

No one and nothing compares to you when it comes to my feelings and me. To me, you not being here feels like you are just at a friends' house; like it hasn't fully hit me that you are gone. Of course I cry. Of course I get really mad, because I don't understand why this has happened. I feel like I have lost half of me, my twin. I talk about you everyday just like when you were here. I always think of you in the mornings, at the bus stop, thinking of how much I miss you always yelling and jumping at the cars or doing something crazy to make me laugh or smile or get me in a good mood. I promise I will be ok, Bubba. You are in a better place with our mom and Uncle Brett. So I know that you will be all right and that makes me know I will be all right. There is one more thing, I do promise I will always and forever love you and will always take care of Momma for you.

*Love Always,
Your Big Sis Forever,
Kayla Darie Lacoste*

Class of '07

As we quickly conquered the first step of high school as freshmen, we distinguished ourselves from the other classes as individuals. As sophomores we were the elite; we stepped it up and expressed our spirits through hawk pride and hard work. Now as juniors, it is our job to step it up another notch and show our classmates who we are and what we can do. As we go on next year to accomplish our final step as seniors, reflect on the free-spirited words of Pink: "I'm ... coming up, so you better get this party started!"

As Always,

Well, class of 2008, we have made it closer the blue robes and tearful goodbyes. We all have been through such a tragic disaster. Some of our fellow classmates have lost a great deal, but we all triumphed the storm with kindness, empathy, and some good ole' Hawk Pride! We all have worked hard to make this year as normal as possible. I wish you all good luck and great memories from the bottom of my heart.

Sincerely, your friend and

Freshmen

Congratulations Freshmen Class! We made it through this year. It's been a tough year but we think we succeeded. We started off trying to adjust to the high school ways, from being the "babies" at the middle school to the "babies" at the high school. As we were beginning to fit in, Hurricane Katrina changed our normal everyday lives. From losing our houses to watching our friends move away, I think this only made us stronger and more determined to succeed. I believe that if we stick to our goals and try out for everything we do, the next three years will be awesome and we will graduate as one of the strongest classes to come out of Hancock. Congratulations Class of 2009!

Ash, I've watched you grow from a strong willed little girl to a strong-minded young lady. I'm so proud of the person you have become. Things have not always been easy for you, but you have kept God first and kept moving in the right direction. Continue to strengthen your faith and your journey will be much more rewarding. I love you so very much. Mom

Stephanie Brooke Slaughter

Sweetie, I am so proud of you and always your accomplishments. Remember to stay focused in college and always remember what really matters. Congratulations.

I love you, Pop

Sweetie, From the day I knew I had a little sister coming I was very excited, yet nobody told me that Barbie dolls, makeup, dress up and pageants came along with it. Oh how we both made sacrifices. You played G.I. Joe; Lego's and let me pull you around the house in a duffle bag hitting every wall along the way. I had to play dress up have makeup put on me and became a nervous wreck for every pageant you participated in. Wow! What a ride it has been and just to think it's not over yet. Congratulations on all your accomplishments. I am truly a very proud big brother. So Hotty Toddy little sis your off to Ole Miss.

Love you very much, Will

For surely I know the plans I have for you, says the Lord, Plans for your welfare and not for harm, to give you a future with hope. Jeremiah 29:11

Stephanie, We are proud of our Sweetie!! Congratulations on your High School accomplishments. You have reached many of the goals that you set for yourself. Stay true to yourself and always trust in God. May all your dreams for the future come true.

We love you, Dad and Mom

Steph, you have changed my life so much in the last year. I am so proud of you and all of your accomplishments. I will always support you in whatever your life holds for you.

I love you, Eric

Stephanie,
You are a rose that we have watched bloom from the time God placed you into our life to love. It's hard to remember that you are not a child anymore but a very special young woman. Keep smiling and be grateful for the joys and challenges that each day brings. Have fun and most important remember to call mom, because you're my "bestest" friend.

Brandon Vegas

Congratulations! We are very proud of you. By the time the year book is done, you will have already received your pilot license. The sky's the limit and I would fly anywhere with you. We are always here for you. When things go wrong as they sometimes will, when the road you're traveling seems so uphill, when your feeling low and the stress is high, and you want to smile but all you do is sigh, when your cares are pressing you down a bit- rest if you have to, but don't you quit. Success is failure turned inside out. The silver is in the clouds of doubt, and you never can tell how close you are. It may be near when it seems so far, so stick to the fight when you're hardest hit. It's when things go wrong, YOU CANNOT QUIT!!!

Love, Mom

Although he picked the worst g/f of all, he never lets me down. He won't ever let me fall. Don't ever forget the memories on the softball field catching the woods on fire in Leetown or the dry match in the rain that we so called found. I remember that one time you fell on that nail and that one time you got mad at me because you wanted to check the mail. Don't forget the puke stain in your white carpet, all the bottle rocket wars, and punching a hole in my door. Don't ever forget when we were in LA and called Mom to come get us and said we just missed feeding the dogs. When you leave these are just a few things to think about: I'll keep your room occupied with all of my things, so don't think of coming home just think of what the future will bring. And by the way when you're sitting in college, or where ever you'll be and the Saints are playing in the Super Bowl mail twenty bucks home to me.

Love you, Megan

Jess,
 We are so proud of you. You have made many accomplishments in your life and have many more to go. Set your goals high! May God bless you every step of the way.

We Love You
 Mom, Dad, and Jenna

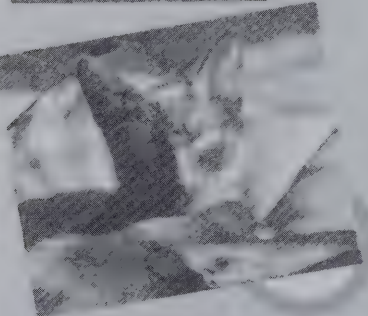

Congratulations Colleen!

Colleen, You have always been a very strong willed person who has set goals and met your challenges since you were a very little girl. You have always had a love for the outdoors, animals & sports. In California you started out at a very young age, swimming, playing hockey, soccer, riding horses and diving into every outdoor project that you could possibly find. Your mature decisions and lifetime choices have made us very proud. The same determination that has helped you complete small projects in your young life will also be the determination that will help you reach your Career goal to become an Orthodontist.

We will always love you, Mom, Dad & Chris

Today as I thought about how handsome you grew up to be, I felt your excitement for life. I started to remember like if it was yesterday when you raised your tiny head and smiled at us for the 1st time and we smiled back at you. What an extraordinary person you have become and to see you laughing, joking, smiling and so content while striving toward goals of your own. Accomplishing everything you set out to do. I realized that as parents our dreams for you have come true. So as you continue to grow please always remember how much we love you and will always be there for you.

Congratulations

BRIANNA CHANEL GAMBINO

SENIOR 2006

A Graduation is so many things, it's a day to make some brand-new plans or make a dream come true
A day for looking back upon some treasured memories too

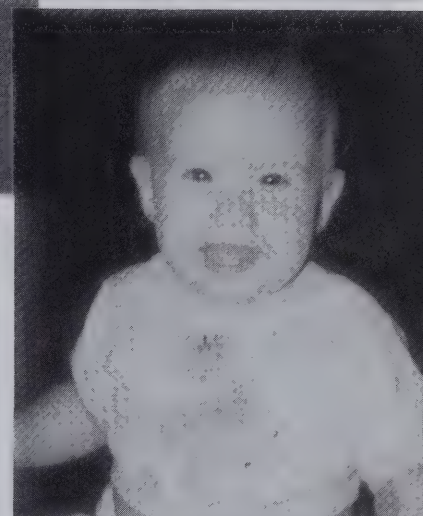

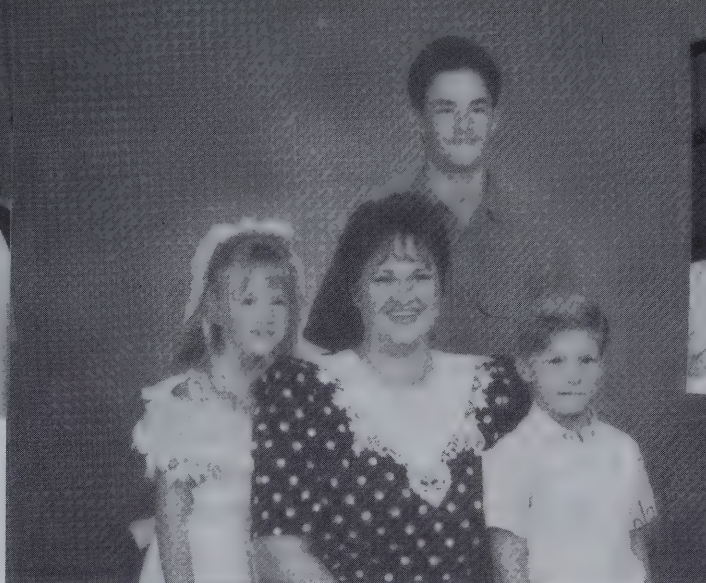

I can close my eyes and see yesterday when
You stood looking over the crib rail with your teeth marks on it
A pebbles hairdo surrounded by springy, bouncing curls
You were so sweet calling yourself "Noni"
Begging Monio to rock you & Papa take you outside to see the cows
You would sit for hours in that pink fuzzy chair watching Tiny Toons

I don't quite know what happened to the last 18 years
We have survived braces, makeup, boyfriends and horses
Time has flown by and you are all grown up
A beautiful woman looking at me now out of her car window
Rushing off to see your friends or your sweetheart
And still with that sweet smile and longer, bouncy, springy curls

With every year that passes you are more special than before
Through every age and every stage, we love you more than before
Graduation is a most special day, The end of a journey taken by you
And the start of a new life, Where dreams are certain to come true.

We Love you,
Your Family

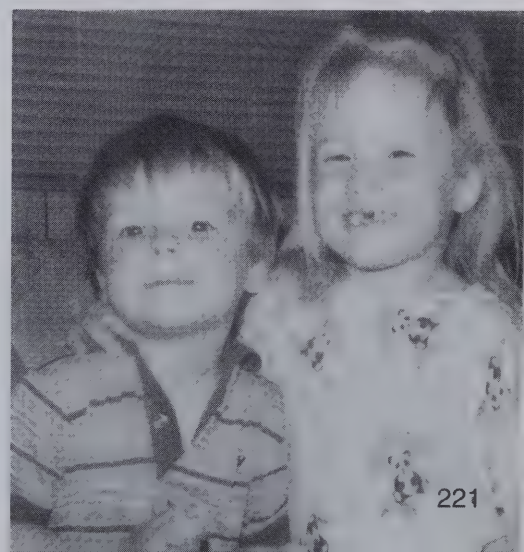

Shalyn Hoffpauir
2006

You are without a doubt the greatest daughter any parent could ever have. From the very first day of your birth, words cannot explain the love in my heart for you. I watched you grow up through the years and become a beautiful young lady. You would fall and skin your knee or fall out of a swing and break your arms and you always get up and go on, nothing got you down.

That is my dream for you to never let anything or anyone get you down. The sky is the limit. You can do anything you put your mind to, and the payoff will be worth it. Walk with Jesus in your heart and may GOD bless you and keep you safe.

May you always remember graduation day. Lots of hugs and kisses from all of us.

Mom, Dad, and Dusty

Amanda Dearman

There are not enough words to express how much we love you and how much you mean to us. God blessed us dearly when He allowed us to watch you grow from a little baby into the young woman you are today ... beautiful, courageous, compassionate, faithful, hard-working, honest, inspirational, intelligent, loving, motivated, perseverant and the list goes on.

You have already accomplished so much in so little time and we are very proud of you.

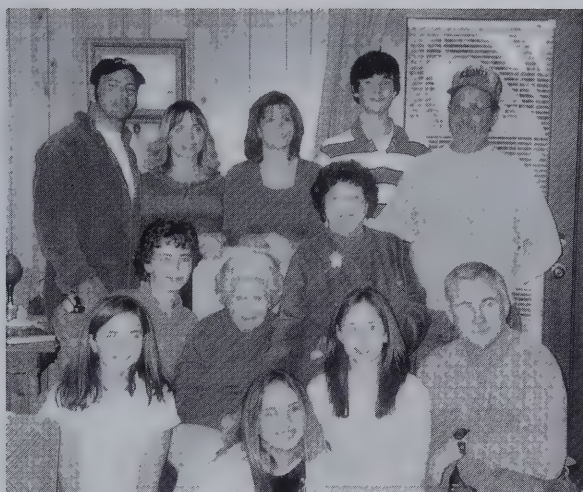

Congratulations on your graduation and as you embark on this new chapter in your life, remember to stay true to yourself and never give up on your dreams.

*Love you always,
Mom, Dad and Taylor*

*I can do all things through
Christ who strengthens me.
Phil. 4:13*

We are so thankful that God brought you into our lives.

*Loving you always,
Nanny & Pappa*

*She is hope for tomorrow
Happiness for today
And love that keeps on growing
Each step of the way.*

*We are so thankful to have you in our lives.
Love,
Maw-Maw Mary & Papa Bill*

Congratulations To Our Little Angel

Jessica,

I wasn't there when you were born, but I am here now, and I will always be here for you. I'm very proud of you and I Love you.

Love, Chuck

To my little sister "Moon Dog":

Congratulations on this milestone accomplishment. You will succeed in life because you are bright, beautiful, and always optimistic. You are much more ahead of the game than I was at your age. I love you and will always be here for you.

Your brother, Jason

It seems like only yesterday when you were just a little girl. I use to call you my little shadow. We went everywhere together. And now all the skating, softball, and birthday parties with your friends are memories in my heart. You have grown into such a beautiful young lady. I can't tell you how very proud you have made me. not only for graduation, but for being the person you are. God truly blessed me with an "Angel." May your journey be full of love, health, happiness, and God's blessings. I love you honey!

Love Always, Mama XO

Jessica,

You made it and we had no doubt you would. We are so very proud of you and love you very much.

Love, Grandpa and Grandma

You've Done It! I'm so proud of you, baby, and I feel like the luckiest guy in the world to be your "rock" during this milestone in your life.

I love you Baby!

Love,
Randon

I love you Aunt Jessica!

Love,

Haley, Preston, and Austin Wright
Conner and Travis Allen

Jessica,

I always knew this day would come. Although there were many obstacles that tried to stand in your way, you never gave up. You are someone to admire and I do admire you! I love you.

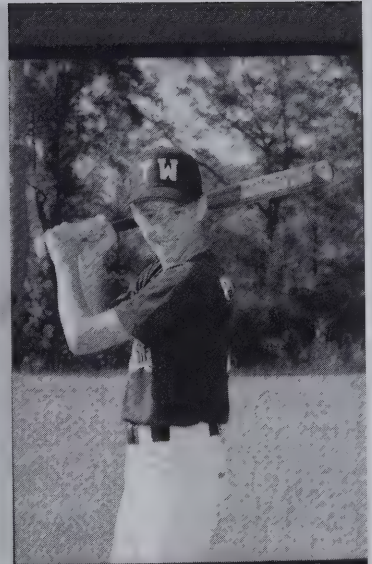

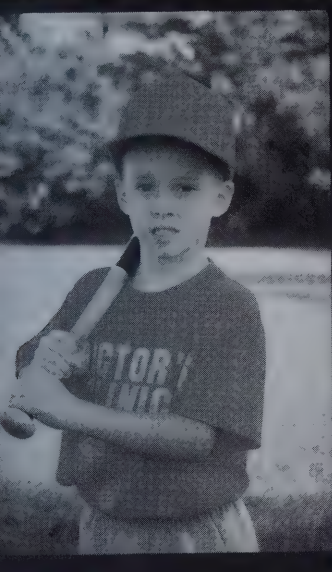

Your sis, Amanda

Jessica,

I always knew you could do it. I'm very proud of you. "Keep reaching for the stars." I love you little sister.

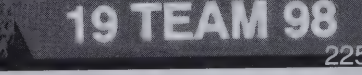

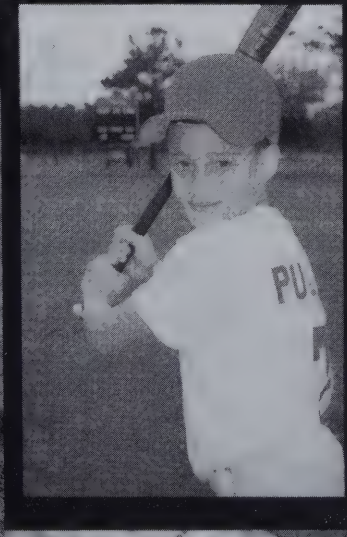

Love, Travis

When I imagine the life you will live,
I think
Of the pleasure your presence will give.

I see the Joy your smile will light and the wonders
You'll weave when your dreams take flight.

I feel the hope
That will grow with your grace

And the difference you'll make
To each heart you embrace

I imagine your life, as I know it will be.
For, my daughter, you've given all this to me.
I love you- Mom

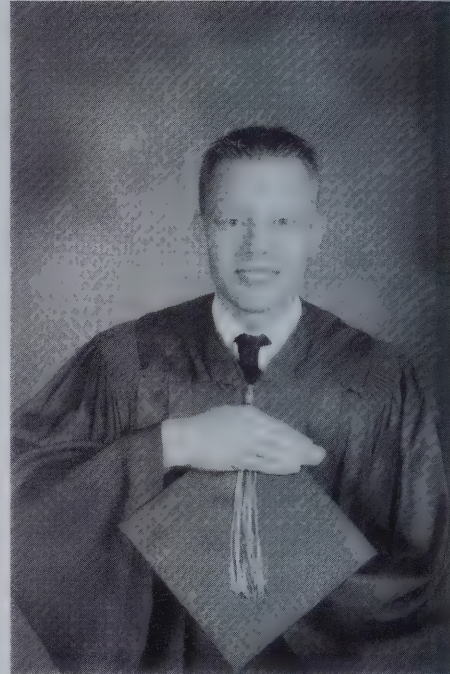

Michael Catania

I reminisce of days gone by. How special you are in my eyes. A child of greatness and gentleness, love and laughter has made you to be. The fine young man you are today. For every ending there is a new beginning. For every memory there is a dream anew. The happy times you've had so far and the people you've met along the way will always be a part of your life you'll never forget. Brighter days are awaiting you so fulfill your dream of dreams. And follow your heart and soul, this will make it all come true. Most of all be yourself in every endeavor. Especially be happy and enjoy what lies ahead. As you graduate today I wish you success, joy and happiness to be yours always. YOU MADE IT!

Love you, Mom.

Mikey-

God! Graduation already? Just yesterday I remember playing with a nerf ball and trading Pokemon cards with you! You've really and truly grown from a crazy boy to a mature man, and I'm proud! It may not seem important, but I do look up to you still and maybe one day you'll look at me when I graduate and think of how you've shaped me into who I will be. Don't forget to invite your lil' sis to some of the crazy parties you'll be having in college; Mom doesn't know! Ha! Anyways, thanks for not being a COMPLETE jerk. Just kidding, but I love you more than any other girl ever will, and you can talk to me 24/7. You know my digits!

Love Katie

Congratulations- Bubba!

We're proud of you and wish you the best for everything in your future.

Love, Nanie, Uncle Billy, Heather, Ben and Stefanie

My Grandson,
What a superfine young man you are. We are so very proud of you. Keep up the good work and go after your ambitions. We love you very much.

Granny and Gramps

My Son,
Hunting, Fishing, 4-wheeling ... We have had so much fun. I have watched you grow and wonder where the years have gone. Your first day of school seems like yesterday and now it's high school graduation. Enjoy all that life has to offer you. Never look back, yesterday is gone and tomorrow is not here. Reach for the stars and settle for nothing less. You are always loved.

Love, Dad

*Though to you, it took a lifetime,
to become so confident and tall,
we feel as if a moment's passed, since you were very small. We've watched with joy and wonder, all the accomplishments you've had, and we want to let you know ... You have a very proud
Mom and Dad and sister, Jade.
Congratulations! We love you!*

CONGRATULATIONS SUMMER!

You are and have always been the sunshine in our lives. We are so proud of you—proud of the beautiful young lady that you are inside and out and proud that you are our granddaughter. As you embark on a new chapter of your life, remember to keep God present in your everyday. We love you VERY much and hope that God continues to shine his blessings down on you.

Love as always,
Mimi and PaPa Ode

Dear Summer,

The time has come for you to enter another era in your life. You are a very special granddaughter to me and your Pappy. We have enjoyed being a part of your life and the wonderful memories we have made together. May God continue to bless you.

All my love,
Mema

Our precious son...

*May you stay FOREVER YOUNG (Rod Stewart)
and never miss the chance to DANCE (Leeann Womack).*

*Our most heartfelt wish for you is to continue holding God's hand through this amazing journey of life. The sky is the limit for where you'll go and what you'll do.
We are so incredibly proud of you.
Lots of love—dad and mom (sunny too)*

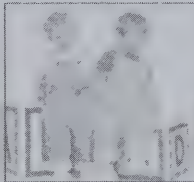

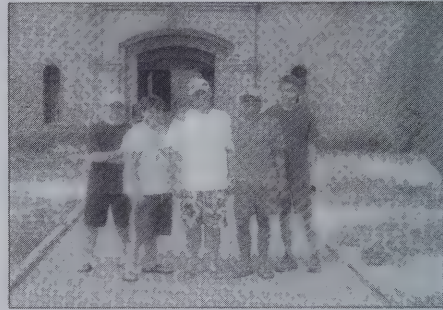

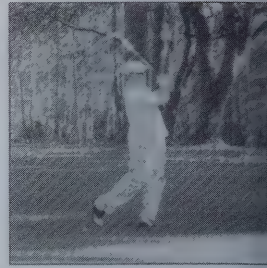

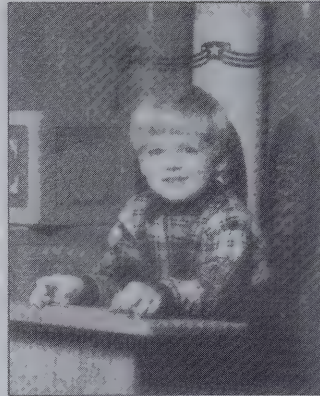

Marie Elaine Laptas

We are all so very proud of you and the achievements you have made in school. May God continue to bless you in everything you do. We hope all your dreams and wishes for the future will come true.

Son, Brother, Grandson, and Friend.

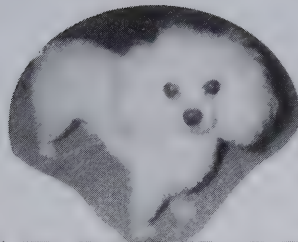

We could not be more proud of you! You have grown into an outstanding young man and we are so happy that you are a part of our lives!!!

We know that you will go far in life. Keep up the good work!

Watch out world!!!

Love Always,

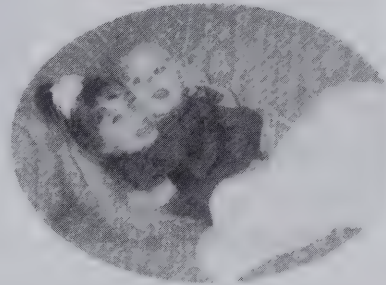

Mom, Dad, Scott, Meme, Big Jim, and Nana

CONGRATULATIONS!

Summer,

No words could ever explain the depth of the love we have for you...No smile could ever shine brighter nor no grace ever greater. To have a daughter as special as you is the greatest gift ever. God must really love your dad and me because he lent you to us. The time has come for us to give you wings. May you fly ever so high! You are and always will be the most beautiful girl in the world. May God bless you, keep you and guide you always. We are so proud of you and the person you've become.

Summer,

You know that sometimes I could kill you, but then sometimes you make me very proud. Sometimes you disappoint me and hurt me, but then sometimes you make me feel good about myself and you make me laugh. Anyway, I want you to know that I am very proud of you, and I thank God for blessing me by giving me you as my Sis!

I love you,
Hunter

All our love always,
Mom and Dad

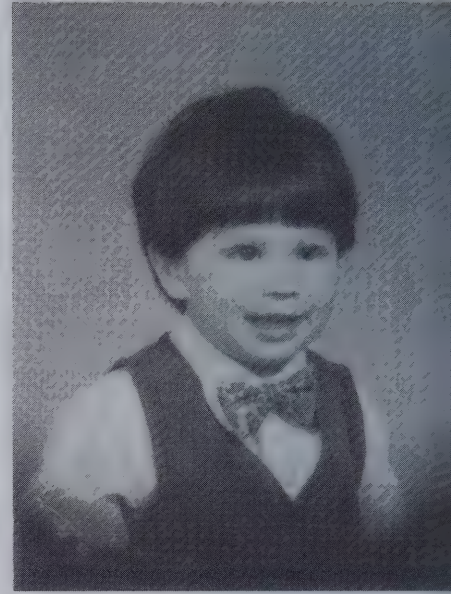

Summer,

I'm glad we made it through all the ups and downs so that I can spend this important part of your life with you. I look forward to the future and the special moments in our lives.

I love you,
Lance

My Brother

Remember the good times we had when we used to wrestle and play hide-n-seek?

I thank you a lot for taking good care of me when we were alone in school, when I was too young to defend myself and people would call me names. You would be my shield and watched over me so I wouldn't get hurt.

Here the day comes that you won't be with me any more, for today you leave me behind and become a Senior and you walk out the door.

Don't be sad, because you taught me how to defend myself because I'm not as fragile as I once was before because it won't be long before I walk out these doors.

What I'm trying to say is I Love You, Brother, and thank you for being there when I need you.

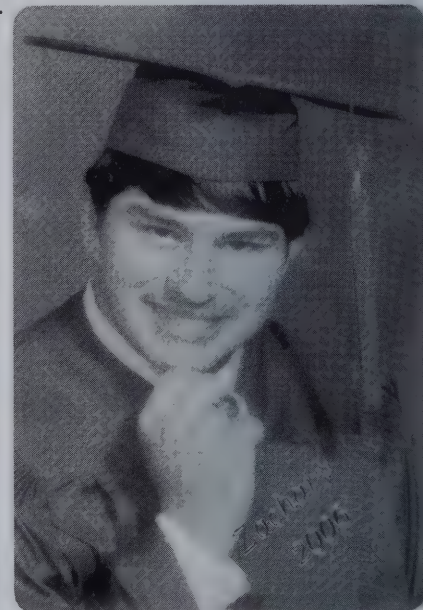

Son

As I felt you growing inside, you were going to be a blessing to our family. When I held you for the first time, I looked down and cried because I was afraid that I wouldn't be able to care for you and teach you all the things you need to know.

The years passed by and I watched you take your first steps. It seemed only yesterday you started headstart and now your a Senior in high school. Where has all the years gone?

I wish you all the luck and love from the day you were born to now, because you see, today I will see you take a big step once more as you graduate from high school and become your own man.

God has guided me to become a good teacher because you're a wonderful son to us both. We're very proud of you for whatever you do. We will always love you, Our Son, Zachary Edward Joseph Necaie.

Congratulations Brittany!

The drawing of a new era for you, a time to grasp what life has to offer, to accomplish anything your mind wants to, to grow, to learn, to prosper.

To enter the world with your greatest desires and make a difference on the earth, to realize you can do anything you want using your potential and your worth.

The future is yours to live how you will and make the most of the talents the Lord has instilled. Congratulations to you Brittany on how much you've grown- We pray the Lord watches over you-As you venture into the unknown.

We are so proud of you-Congrats again!
Love Mom & Kirk
